

THE STORY OF FCALMEDZ

BY: WARREN WONG (AGED 8)

Once upon a time there was a man called Fcalmedz. He was a very vain man; he liked being handsome. He was always combing his hair and buying new clothes. One day, he was on the way to Zdemlacf's shop when he noticed something on the floor. It was a very expensive looking pair of scissors. He took the scissors home to cut his hair. His hair looked awesome! He went to sleep happy.

As he was brushing his teeth the next day he opened his eyes and screamed. "AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAH!" he was covered in black hair, he looked like a monster. He angrily tried to cut it away, but it just grew back longer! "Whose scissors are these?" he roared. He kicked the wall and left his house.

All the villagers laughed at him, especially a mean, rude, bossy, nasty, naughty and bad tempered nonsense girl. He was so angry that he stole all the villager's gold, silver, money and clothes. He even stole the cat's fish! When the villagers noticed what he had done they took him to jail. Overnight he broke out and went to hide in the woods. He never came out again.

After half a century the mean, rude, bossy, nasty, naughty and bad tempered nonsense girl accidentally used the same magic scissors and grew just as hairy! She rushed into the forest and found Fcalmedz and they soon married and had a hairy baby. They called him Bigfoot.

